FINAL PREPARATIONS MADE FOR C. E. CONVENTION HERE

Over Four Hundred Young People Participate in Big Rally

GLENDALE IS READY

Immense Parade Next Tuesday—City Will Be In Gala Attire

Enthusiasm in the Nth degree marked the last rally and get-together meeting of the various committees in charge of the preparations for the thirty-third annual state convention of the Christian Endeavor, held last evening in the social hall of the First Methodist church.

Girls and boys to the number of nearly four hundred were there—big girls and little girls, chubby girls and willowy girls, stately girls and sparkling girls, interspersed with a very fair proportion of fat boys and lean boys, tall boys and short boys, serious boys and laughing boys, boys very young and youths not so callow.

But whatever their type, they were all filled with the spirit of enthusiasm and hearty cooperation.

"Who's Your Neighbor?" and "Musical Chairs" were games that caused much hilarity and a feeling of acquaintance, and then Howard Brown, chairman of general arrangements, led the assembly in a practice of two Christian Endeavor songs.

All in Readiness

Fred Hoffman, in charge of the pages and guides, reported that pages and guides would go with the reception committee to meet the special train from the north due Saturday morning at the South Glendale station of the Southern Pacific, to check the baggage and assist the guests in other ways. They will also have charge of a checking room at the large tent across from the Christian Endeavor auditorium; some of them will act as platform pages at every session, others will help at headquarters, and still others will have charge of the refreshment stand across from the auditorium.

Miss Carol Duncan, chairman of the reception committee, reported that one group of the committee would meet the northern delegation at Saugus; another will receive the guests at the

LOS ANGELES LOVERS COME TO GLENDALE TO BE MARRIED

Rev. C. R. Norton had the pleasure of increasing the happiness of two fond hearts when he united in marriage last Saturday evening, at 8 o'clock, Elsie Luella Shackley and John Carver Benson, who sought his services at his home. The ceremony was witnessed by the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Shackley of Los Angeles, who are old friends of the Nortons, and Miss Beulah Collinge. Outside, in automobiles, a group of young men, friends of the groom, awaited the exit of the newlyweds and enthusiastically showered them with rice.

NEW HIGH SCHOOL SITES DISCUSSED

At the regular meeting of the chamber of commerce directorate today, one of the important matters schedule for consideration was a site for Glendale Union high school which the trustees feel has become a very urgent question on account of the increasing growth of the school in attendance and the impossibility of much expansion on the present site. Members of the high school board will be present at the meeting.

Grass Fire

Members of station No. 1, city fire department, were called out Monday afternoon to a grass fire at 528 West Burchett street, which was soon extinguished with no damage to property.

TWENTY ACRES ARE NECESSARY FOR HIGH SCHOOL PURPOSES

Made Clear That the School Officials Desired C. of C. to Select Site

BOND ISSUE PLANNED

Glendale Union High School Stands Twenty-sixth in Schools of State

Capt. Thomas D. Watson, representing the board of trustees of Glendale Union High school, spoke at the chamber of commerce meeting of the urgent necessity for a bond issue for two purposes, namely, a suitable site and new buildings thereon, which will necessitate an outlay of $350,000.

Peter L. Ferry moved that an investigation of the project be made by a committee of five, said committee to confer with the trustees. Motion carried.

It was made clear that the school officials desired that the Chamber of Commerce select the site. The locations are already under consideration.

One proposition is to purchase two more blocks adjacent to the present campus and the other is to buy a tract of land from the Thom subdivision at Lexington drive and Glendale avenue.

High School Bonds Planned

Twenty acres for high school purposes is a minimum required by a high school in a city growing as rapidly as Glendale, according to the speaker, who referred to San Bernardino, Riverside and Pasadena as having 20 acres each, and the latter has recently purchsed 13 acres additional. Glendale high school is 26th among the 338 high schools of the state and 16th in size.

CONGRESSMAN IS PROMPT IN REPLY

Mrs. Ruby J. Smart, in behalf of the W. C. T. U. of Glendale, dispatched the following to Congressman Lineberger, who at once forwarded reply:

Glendale, Calif., June 5, 1921.

Congressman, W. F. Lineberger,
Washington, D. C.

Honorable Sir:—The Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Glendale, Calif., ninth district, numbering 160 wives and mothers, citizens of California, respectfully urge your prompt action supporting house bill 5033, supplementing national prohibition act. Trusting you will support this and all bills that are for the good of our state and nation, we, your constituents, earnestly pray.

Respectfully yours,
RUBY J. SMART,
President, Glendale W. C. T. U.

Congress of the United States,
House of Representatives,
Washington, D. C., June 15, 1921.

Mrs. R. J. Smart, President Glendale W. C. T. U.

My Dear Mrs. Smart:—Your letter of June 5, requesting my support of R. H. 5033, is received. I wish to assure you and others of the W. C. T. U. of Glendale that I shall lend my hearty support to this and all other measures designed to strengthen the Volstead act or any other prohibition measure which may be introduced. With kindest regards, I am, yours truly,

WALTER F. LINEBERGER.

CAMP ESTELLE IS OPEN FOR SUMMER

Camp Estelle, the summer outing place for girls, maintained by the Y. W. C. A. in San Antonio canyon above Uplands, is now open and available to young women of the community who choose to take advantage of its invitation to spend a couple of weeks in the mountains. It has a charming situation between two mountain streams about two miles beyond Camp Baldy and is not difficult to reach.

Those who wish to take advantage of the opportunity can do so by registering at 941 South Figueroa street, Los Angeles, at least two weeks in advance of the date they wish to go, and can receive full information there.

FOURTEEN MILK COMPANIES IN NET

According to a special dispatch to The Daily Press 14 milk distributing companies of Los Angeles and 18 individuals, officials of various concerns, were indicted by the grand jury today on a charge of violation of the Cartwright anti-trust law, an offense punishable by fine and imprisonment. The milk trust is dead; this action by the grand jury has broken its backbone. No longer will the ogre that snatched from little children their chief sustenance stalk the Southland. Little citizens of California will now get their chance to build bone and brawn and grow into fine manhood and womanhood.

QUIT LINING YOUR POCKETS AND HELP NOURISH FUTURE CITIZENS

In San Francisco, the grocers buy milk from the big distributors for 12 cents a quart and sell it for 14 cents—2 cents lower than the Glendale price. On this margin of profit they sell more milk.

People who can afford to pay 16 cents a quart are showing as much interest in the price-lowering campaign as those who cannot afford the exorbitant price; this is because those who are not especially inconvenienced by the high price are humanitarian enough and unselfish enough to wish to encourage the movement to bring milk within the reach of all the undernourished little children in the Southland who are now being stinted in order that the milk profiteers may line their pockets.

A recent report of the Los Angeles city bureau of nursing, which is a branch of the city health department, showed that the 298 of the 370 undernourished children who each received a quart of milk a day for a month showed marked gain in weight and strength.

The many children whom this bureau and the Salvation Army milk fund and other kindred humanitarian organizations never reach, because they are the children of parents who could not bring themselves to accept charity. These are the people of the great class of self-respecting poor who form the backbone of the country.

The children of the well-to-do and the children of the poor suffer less at the hands of the milk profiteers than those of this class, for want of milk which might be had in plenty, but which is now going to waste because the milk combine discourage its production in order to keep up the price.

IS PREVENTED FROM TAKING OWN LIFE AFTER KILLING HIS WIFE

(By International News Service)

LONG BEACH, June 21.—Intercepting his wife from whom he had been separated for three months, as he approached her place of employment here today, Henry Miller, 62 years old, shot and almost instantly killd Mrs. Myrtle Miller, 38 years old, but was prevented from ending his own life by Frank O'Connor, a passerby who knocked the gun out of Miller's hand. The couple were married last November.

Friends of Mrs. Miller said that Miller had been in ill health for eight years and that he had represented himself as being quite wealthy but that this was not true.

Miller at first denied that he had deceived Mrs. Miller as to his financial circumstances and accused her of receiving attentions from other men, but friends of Mrs. Miller were emphatis in denying that there was any other man in her life.

ONE MAN KILLED AND ANOTHER BADLY INJURED

(By International News Service)

LOS ANGELES, June 21.—Sergeant James E. Jones of Washington, D. C., was instantly killed, and Private Lester J. Overton was injured, at March Field near Riverside today when an army airplane in which they were flying plunged in a head spin from an altitude of 300 feet. Overton was not seriously hurt.

ENTHUSIASTIC CLUB MEMBERS ON HAND EARLY TO SELECT CABIN SITES

Promptly at 8:30 this morning, 500 of the members of the Sunset Canyon club, near Burbank, who were entitled to sites in that part of the canyon known as section 8 made the rush to take a site 100 feet square wherever their fancy dictated or wherever they could get it.

"The whole affair was perfectly harmonious and good natured," said L. T. Allen, secretary of the club. "I never saw anything better managed; there was no misunderstanding, not a particle of dissatisfaction.

"Others came later to get their sites, so that therre were from 600 to 800 chosen in all. The club has 2300 members and is the largest country club in California. Membership ques went up to $120 today."

The auto road to Sunset canyon is now finished part way and work is going on to build it to the terminal, where the cabin sites chosen today are located. There are 1000 wagon loads of building material now on the ground and excavations for the club house will be completed by the end of the week.

Mr. Allen has been authorized to let the contract for the telephone and electric light poles up Sunset canyon and Deer Creek canyon.

TRAFFIC COPS WERE BUSY ON THE JOB YESTERDAY

Monday proved a woeful day for careless motorists with its toll of arrests for breach of traffic regulations. The following are scheduled to appear before Judge Lowe on June 24 to answer to the specified charges:

O. A. Eckert, Box 188, Lindsay, Cal., arrested at San Fernando road and Brand, cutting corner; M. Shoup, 716 First street, Pasadena, arrested at Los Feliz and Brand, cutout open; W. A. Bisig, 5687 Baltimore street, Los Angeles, arrested at San Fernando road and Brand, cutout open; Albert Wirz, 936 San Julian street, El Monte, arrested at Brand and Broadway, turning at intersection; F. A. Dutro, 919 First street, San Fernando, arrested at Broadway and Adams, for driving car past sanitarium with cutout open; L. G. Bramble, 622 North Columbus, arrested at Central and San Fernando, driving truck without muffler; H. L. Brooks, 1103 1-2 East Pico street, Los Angeles, arrested at Brand and Broadway, driving against traffic.

Otto F. Schaeffer, 431 Patterson avenue, Glendale, who was arrested on June 18, charged with exceeding the speed limit and arrested on Central avenue near Doran, is scheduled to appear before Judge Lowe on June 24.

CARPENTER TOOLS STOLEN YESTERDAY

Complaint has been filed with the local police by Zack Hesse, of West Dryden street, Glendale, and Robert Breckenridge, of 1167 North Catalina street, Pasadena, that carpenter tools belonging to them were stolen yesterday afternoon from a job at 613 Palmer avenue, on which they were employed. The police have not as yet been able to find any trace of the stolen tools.

MRS. M. M. CALKINS WILL REPORT THE COMING C. E. CONVENTION

The Glendale Daily Press has detailed a member of its own staff, Mrs. M. M. Calkins, to report every session of the great Christian Endeavor convention which convenes in Glendale from June 25 to 29 inclusive.

Every detail will be comprehensively covered and feature stories of this important event will be written in accurate and interesting manner.

The Daily Press is proud of the fact that any one of its well-trained staff is capable of handling this big event, which renders it unnecessary for this paper to import a special writer for the occasion.

POLICE READY FOR CONVENTION

In order that an adequate police force may be available to cope with any emergency arising during the Christian Endeavor convention, Chief of Police John Lampert is making every effort to have special officers delegated. It is probable that eight plain clothes men will be selected from representatives of the Christian Endeavor societies while the city will appoint two extra policemen for service during the five days the convention will be in conference.

According to Chief Lampert steps will be taken to preserve traffic regulations for with the arrival of hundreds of delegates it is anticipated that this problem will become additionally acute. While the parade to be held by the Christian Endeavor is in progress it is planned to prohibit all traffic on certain parts of Brand boulevard and Broadway.

AS BAD AS OUR HALF OF ONE PER CENT

(By International News Service)

MADRID, June 21—There's no rest for the movies in Madrid.

The new perfect of the police here, who recently issued an order that the sexes should be separated in the audiences at movie theatres has now amended the order as follows:

Two-fifths of the space available for the audience will be reserved for the women and children; one-half of the remaining three-fifths will be reserved for men and children; the latter half of the three-fifths will be for both sexes. Red lights must be kept on at all times in this latest section.

The order goes on: Anyone over ten years of age who is found in a part of the house where he does not belong will be liable to a fine of not less than ten dollars.

There is considerable consternation among the courting couples in the city.

The newspapers humorously declare that cinema proprietors will have to take a course of higher mathematics in order to make sure what is the half of the three-fifths.

Although the new regulation has been the subject of many humorous paragraphs, it is generally agreed that drastic restraint was needed, since the behavior of a section of the public at cinemas has been a cause of scandal.

If wings made angels we'd all buy airplanes.

MARTHA MALICIA IS MAKING FRIENDS RAPIDLY IN GLENDALE

Martha Malicia, who has lately joined the staff of the Glendale Press, is now engaged in making friends in Glendale and from general appearances she is finding it very pleasant employment. Her errand is with the business men and women of our city, to help them see their business from her attractive viewpoint and to make the public see it in the same light. There is a great deal of psychology in the business of buying and selling, and half the game is in making the other fellow want the thing you wish to part with. Martha Malicia has great talent along the line of stimulating desire and the merchants who cooperate with her will find that she can give them just the kind of publicity that will do them the most good. Martha Malicia is her own best introduction and recommendation. We commend her to the friends of the paper and of the best interests of Glendale.

MONTE VISTA HOME IS ABOUT READY FOR USE

The kitchen at the Monte Vista welfare home in which a large group of Glendale ladies, captained by Mrs. Ralph Meeker, have ardently interested themselves, is nearly ready for use. Fine linoleum has been laid, utensils and stoves have been purchased and installed, new sinks put in, and the only lack now is a good refrigerator, which Mrs. Meeker hopes will be secured before the formal opening of the institution takes place. That date has not been absolutely fixed but it will be some time the latter part of June after the playgrounds have been put in order, and at that time the Glendale public will be invited to inspect the home.

ANNUAL SESSION OF CREDIT MEN

D. S. Phillips, of 210 East Chestnut street, and Robert H. Kimball, of Garfield avenue, have returned from the annual convention of the National Credit Men's association in San Francisco; they report a splendid meeting and a fine time.

Headquarters of the convention were maintained at the St. Francis hotel. The president's ball at the Palace hotel on Tuesday was a delightful occasion, and a Bohemian affair given on Friday at a hostelry outside the city was likewise enjoyable. Thursday was devoted to a trip up Mt. Tamalpais and there was also an expedition through the woods in Muir valley.

Most of the delegates were accompanied by their wives. Easterners in attendance came by the northern route and will return the southern way, which brings them through Los Angeles, where they are being lavishly entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillips will be dinner hosts this evening to a number of these delegates and later the party will attend the ball at the Ambassador in honor of the delegates.

SCHOOLS SHOW GREAT INCREASE

With the city schools closed for the year 1920-1921, Superintendent Richardson D. White's office is active in the preparation of district school reports on attendance for presentation to the county superintendent in order that funds due the local district may be determined. According to Mr. White the records for the present year show a substantial increase in attendance over those of previous years.

In conjunction with this report another of local interest will be compiled by Mr. White which will contain statistics on school finances and a general outline of the work and activities of the past year.

WAS AN INVALID AND DESPONDENT, SO TAKES HER OWN LIFE

Mrs. Thomas L. Meagher Leaves a Note Explaining Cause of Her Act

WAS HIGHLY ESTEEMED

Requested That Mrs. Fannie Marple Retts Sing at Her Funeral

The tragic death of Mrs. Thomas L. Meagher yesterday morning at her home at 343 West Garfield street, has been a great shock not alone to her immediate family, but to a large circle of friends, for she had been an ardent and efficient worker in church circles and until recent months had been a member of the First Methodist church. She had also been active in P.-T. A. work.

For two years she has suffered from nervous prostration which has increased from day to day until she reached a point where, as she declared in a note addressed to her husband, she could endure her sufferings no longer.

She had been dead for about two hours before the discovery was made by Mr. Meagher. It was the first day of his vacation and he had arisen quietly so as not to disturb Mrs. Meagher, had called his daughter and they had breakfasted very quietly in the kitchen so that they might avoid waking the wife and mother. Mr. Meagher then went to his garage to do some work on his automobile, and Geraldine had lain down that the house might be still until her mother should awake.

When hours passed and there was no sign of his wife, Mr. Meagher came to the house, rapped upon her bedroom door and called her name. There was no answer and the door was locked. Gaining an entrance through a closet he found the body of his wife and the revolver with which she had shot herself throug the temple. He also found notes she had left for him explaining the cause of her act, and asking that her friend, Mrs. Jennie Phillips be sent for to take charge of her remains. That she thought of every detail was evident from her directions relative to the funeral in which she suggested as a theme the verse beginning: "Let not your heart be troubled." She also asked that "Shadows," and "Some Day the Silver Chord Will Break," be sung by Mrs. Fannie Marple Retts.

Mrs. Meagher was 39 years of age and besides her husband and daughter, leaves a sister, Mrs. Benner, who is a resident of Los Angeles.

It is expected that funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at the Jewel City Undertaking parlors, conducted by Rev. Clyde M. Crist, assisted by Rev. Edward Hoskyn.

ALPHA OMEGA CLASS TO SERVE DINNER TOMORROW NIGHT

The Alpha Omega class of the Central Christian church will demonstrate their culinary accomplishments to members of the church and their friends at the regular church supper tomorrow evening at 6 o'clock in the bungalow.

Young ladies of the class will serve a most appetizing three-course repast, whose menu includes a salad, meat loaf with mashed potatoes and gravy, scalloped corn, ice tea, coffee and ice cream and cake. The price is so nominal that if the class makes any profit to turn into its fund for furnishings for its classroom in the new church, they will have proved themselves expert economists as well as culinary artists.

The supper is in charge of Mmes. M. G. Musser, M. D. Learned and Harry Ryan. Miss Evangeline Quackenbush is president of the class and head of the serving committee.

The boys of the class are showing their spirit of cooperation by the selling of tickets and rather faint promises of washing the dishes.

CHILE PLANS NEW ANDES RAILROAD

(By International News Service)

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 21—A possible means of relieving the economic depression in Chile, due to the jumping of the nitrate markets of the world, following the war, is now under consideration by the Chilean Government, according to reports here today. This project, which contemplates the building up of a coal export trade to replace the depleted nitrate industry, provides for the construction of a railroad across the Lower Andes, connecting the Chilean railway system with that of Argentina.

By the construction of approximately 155 miles of road, it is stated, easy access could be had from Central Chile to Buenos Aires and Bahia Blanca, and the chronic shortage of coal and lumber in Argentina could be alleviated by drawing upon the surplus stocks of Chile.

The consumption of coal in Argentina is estimated at more than 20,000,000 tons per year, all of which, it is believed, could be supplied by Chile at the price of fifty Chile paper pesos per ton. A government export tax of five paper pesos per ton would probably be levied netting the Chilean government approximately 700,000,000 pesos annually or approximately the income formerly derived from the nitrate industry. The prospects of developing the lumber exports are believed to be good.

It is also predicted that the road would carry a considerable passenger traffic. The route of the proposed extension, which is from Cura-Cautin, in Chile, to Zapala, in Argentina, lies through the rich Chilean valley of Lonquimay, which is suitable for cultivation of all classes of agricultural products. The Andes in this district are low, and there would be no necessity for tunneling, the maximum grade being no more than 2 per cent.

Up In the Air Over It

(By International News Service)

SAVANNAH, Ga., June 21—Because the statutes only say that vehicles of land or sea are subject to confiscation when liquor is found on them. Officials here are puzzled as to whether they can confiscate an airplane upon which was found eighty-one quarts of fine whisky. No one was near the plane when it was found and there has been no claimant. The wings have been taken off the machine, which was towed to the police barracks yard.

HONOR THE FLAG

The Glendale Daily Press struck a responsive chord in its offer of a beautiful bunting flag with each yearly subscription paid in advance. All we could procure at that time were speedily taken and many applied for the flags after the supply had been exhausted. To satisfy these demands we have ordered a new supply, and these will be given on the same terms as were the first. The Daily Press is not doing this as a money-making proposition, for the flags are quite costly and the paper is worth every cent asked for it, but we desire to do our bit toward stimulating patriotism and reverence for the flag. We hope to eventually see "Old Glory" displayed in every Glendale home, and we want to do our part toward bringing this about.

Fill out the coupon below and bring it or mail it to the office, accompanied with $5 for a year's advance subscription, and a flag will be laid away for you. If in arrears, pay to date and a year in advance to get the flag.

Paper Tale

(By International News Service)

DENVER, June 21.—The flood waters of Pueblo wrought a peculiar type of havoc in the offices of the Franklin Press, Third and Main streets, a branch of the Rocky Mountain Bank Note company of this city, according to Malcolm Dennison, who just returned from the ruined city, where he made an examination and appraisal of the company's loss.

"In the basement of the Franklin Press, which was in the center of the flooded district," said Mr. Dennison, "there was a very large stock of paper. When the water reached it it started to swell and now it's lifting the first floor right off the foundations. It's so enlarged that we can't get in to remove it, and all we can do is to sit by and pray that it won't keep on swelling and wreck the whole building, which we purchased shortly before the flood."

Mr. Dennison said that pumping the water from basements is being made difficult by seepage which fills them, in some instances, almost as fast as they are emptied. He estimates the loss of the Franklin Press, owned by Denver interests, at $80,000, exclusive of what the damage to the building may be. Orders from Pueblo banks located in the flooded districts, for supplies necessary to resume business, are being filled on the cost basis.

INDIAN MAID MARRIES AND LOSES HER GOAT

(By International News Service)

DURANGO, Col., June 21—Rough roads and swollen streams failed to dampen the ardor of an Indian maiden living on the Ute reservation south of here.

When John Miller, a Navajo ranch hand, could not afford to "lay off" in order to go to the girl he had promised to wed, he sent word for her to join him at the Wyatt ranch on the Red Mesa, near here, where they were married.

It was forty miles from her home to the Wyatt ranch. She walked the entire distance, leading a goat she brought as her betrothal gift. When she reached La Plata River it was out of bounds and there was no bridge for many miles. She staked the goat in a grassy plat and swam the river, continuing her walk to the Wyatt ranch. The Newlyweds later rescued the goat.

SAYS IT IS FOLLY TO DISARM NOW

(By International News Service)

NEW YORK, June 21—Secretary of War John W. Weeks, recently received the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws at the New York University here. The former Senator from Massachusetts delivered the principal address on the same day, the occasion being the commencement exercises for the University of New York. In the course of his address the War secretary said it would be folly for the United States to disarm now. "It would be the height of folly for the United States unless the movement included all the nations," Weeks said. The world, he said, is not yet ready for disarmament.

Storm Revives Torpedo Scene

(By International News Service)

SISTERSVILLE, W. Va., June 21—A severe electrical storm at Friendly, this county, so vividly reminded William Staten of the time when the steamship Vermont was torpedoed by a German submarine during the war that he suffered a collapse and became a raving maniac for a period. Staten was a member of the crew of the Vermont and was in the engine room of the vessel when it was torpedoed. Fifty-eight men were killed by the resultant explosions. Staten was en route from the east to the home of an aunt at Ashland, Ky.

Building Permits

With the current year's total of building permits in Glendale amounting to $1,850,249, to date, is is probable that the totals for the first six months of 1921 will double those for the corresponding period of 1920, according to statistics on file at the building permits office in the city hall. From January 1, 1920, to June 30, 1920, building permits issued amounted to $1,015,439.

Final Preparations Made for C. E. Convention Here

Southern Pacific station; and other groups of the reception committee will be at the Pacific Electric station all day to receive guests coming in on the trolley cars.

C. C. Stoler, chairman of the committee on decorations, reported that City Manager Watson says the street decorations will be up Thursday. Mr. Stoler says his committee has arranged for four electric signs and an arch at Brand boulevard and Harvard street, showing the way to the auditorium.

Miss Ethel Preston, chairman of entertainment, reported the splendid work of her committee on housing the guests and made a forceful appeal for obtaining cooperation in obtaining more beds for the guests.

Glendale Must Cooperate

Glendale is the first city of less than 30,000 which has ever attempted such an ambitious project as entertaining a State Christian Endeavor convention. Surely Glendale citizens are too solicitous of Glendale's reputation for hospitality to let the city fail to provide lodging for these guests. Any one having one room or more to spare for these five days is asked to communicate with Christian Endeavor headquarters, 130 South Brand boulevard, Glendale 408.

H. W. Yarick, chairman of the ushers, reported concerning the auto parking, the rest room and the seating, for all of which his committee has made ample provision.

Miss Doris Beecker reported for the registration committee. W. E. McCormick, chairman of the transportation committee, reported having secured autos to meet the guests coming in on the train; through Pacific Electric cars have been secured by his committee from Long Beach and Santa Ana; 10,000 streamers are advertising the convention as well as 100 muslin signs on the sides of street cars. Transportation has been arranged for the various trips and entertainments for the guests.

Mrs. H. W. Yarick, head of the commissary department with the tremendous task of feeding the multitude, reported tersely and concisely that the cook stoves were all cleaned up and in working order and that's all there was too it—just as if it wasn't much of a chore to superintend meals in the high school cafeteria, meals in nearly every church dining-room in town, meals at the Intermediate school cafeteria, and from 500 to 1000 box luncheons besides!

Recreation Program

Mr. Baker, head of the recreation committee, told of the ball game to take place on the high school grounds, a picnic at the same place and one at Verdugo park, and the high bonfires on the high school athletic grounds on Monday and Tuesday evenings, about which the Endeavorers will gather for a community sing, led by Otis Ironmonger.

The great parade will be something the like of which Glendale has never seen before. Many delegations will bring their own floats. There will be three or four bands; Glendale policemen will lead the grand march; following them will come these various Glendale committees with distinctive uniforms and banners; speakers and state officers will ride in autos, and delegations from various county unions will follow.

The parade will take place Tuesday evening at 5:30 and promises to make history in Glendale.

Music Worth While

Mrs. Fannie Marple Retts, in charge of the music, promised such a chorus as Glendale has never before heard. It consists of 125 voices, led by Robert Maile, with Mrs. Spencer Robinson and Mrs. William Crawford as accompanists. This chorus will sing an anthem at each session.

Community singing will be led by Otis Ironmonger, with James Garth at the piano.

Mrs. Retts urged the patronage of the great concert given on Friday evening when Glendale music lovers will be privileged to hear the Zoellner quartet and the Orpheus club at a nominal admission price, in a concert that ordinarily would cost $5.

Harry Marple, chairman of the information bureau, told of the well systematized work of his committee, which he termed "The Encyclopedia of Glendale." Booths will be maintained by this committee at various places.

Guthrie Boyd, of the halls committee, told of the enlarging of the auditorium, and the splendid work of the volunteer help.

Will Richards, second vice chairman of Los Angeles county, told of the interest of the various Christian Endeavor unions he had visited through the county. The pre-registrations, so far, have reached 2400. Of these 1550 are Los Angeles county members.

Glendale won the prize for being the first to get its quota of registrations.

Divine Aid Invoked

Miss Nellie Warner, chairman of devotionals, attributed the success the gigantic undertaking has met with in all its plans to the power of prayer. She told of the prayer circles held frequently in Glendale, Eagle Rock and Burbank while the plans were being worked out, to invoke God's blessing on the plans and on all who were forwarding them. She announced that prayer circles would be held during the convention twice a day for its further success.

Other details of the work were related by Chairman Brown, among them the important fact that so far all bills sent in for the work had been paid within 48 hours. A camping ground for those coming in autos to camp during the session has been aarranged north of Verdugo park.

A local band, organized by Joe Meier, will rehearse Thursday night; the choir will hold a final rehearsal on the same evening.

Social Session

Refreshments of punch and small cakes were served by the refreshment committee at the close of the meeting.

A rabbit's foot is carried about by many players of games to bring them luck.

"NEW GOODS FOR LESS MONEY"

Glendale BETTER COUNCIL Campaign Committee

Commends to the Voters the Most Independent, Competent and Representative Ticket in the Field

W. E. Anderson S. A. Davis C. E. Kimlin
Wm. C. Mabry and Spencer Robinson

Why a New Organization Had to Be Formed In the People's Interests

There were two organizations already "programmed." One of these organizations refused to indorse a single candidate who was opposed to "blue laws" and "Sunday closing."

The other group we attempted to cooperate with in the selection of an INDEPENDENT ticket, but we found this organization to comprise a small clique whose principal purpose seems to be to keep the majority of the incumbents in office—in the expectation of their being subject to the domination and control of certain ambitious gentlemen. The vice-president and leading spirit of this little self-centered group is the local manager of the SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA GAS COMPANY. The chairman of the "indorsing" committee is the local representative of the TELEPHONE TRUST. The man who was and is the sine qua non candidate of this group has for many years been in the employ of the RAILROAD COMPANY.

It therefore becomes imperative to offer in behalf of the citizens of Glendale organized assistance to five big, outstanding, independent, substantial business and professional men, to properly protect the people's interests.

What the Glendale BETTER COUNCIL Campaign Means

The candidates of this organization are pledged to:

ECONOMY IN EXPENDITURES — Our city now has a MONTHLY salary list aggregating $10,000 per month!

EFFICIENCY IN ADMINISTRATION—Nepotism has insinuated itself into various departments of our city government. This does not make for efficiency.

PROGRESSIVE IMPROVEMENTS—Until the close of the readjustment period essential and substantial improvements should be made, but all LUXURIES SHOULD BE POSTPONED.

REDUCTION IN TAXATION—By efficiency and economy our taxes can be materially reduced.

A CLEAN CITY—High moral, ethical standards should prevail. Our city is a city of homes, and our children must be protected.

RELIGIOUS FREEDOM—Blue laws and Sunday closing interfere with religious liberty, the most sacred right of American people. The candidates of the BETTER COUNCIL CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE will strictly enforce law and order and the highest standards of purity and decency will be carefully safeguarded.

REPRESENTATIVE GOVERNMENT—It will be noted that no two of the BETTER COUNCIL CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE candidates live in the same district of the city and that they are widely representative.

A SQUARE DEAL TO ALL—The names of the men indorsed by the BETTER COUNCIL CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE are a sufficient guarantee of their honesty and fairness.

THE GLENDALE BETTER COUNCIL CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE RECOMMENDS THE FOLLOWING CANDIDATES:

WALTER E. ANDERSON, 410 West Los Feliz; age 50 years; resided in Glendale 15 years; garage and auto service business. A substantial, conservative, successful business man and a large taxpayer. He will be interested in economy and efficiency. He is a practical mechanical engineer and his knowledge as such will be of great service to the city. He will bring to the Board a long and successful business experience—a quality now needed in our city government.

S. A. DAVIS, 118 West Colorado; age 46 years; resided in Glendale 9 years; real estate and investments; formerly in feed and fuel business. He has had an active, honorable and successful business career in our midst and he is a man of sane, independent judgment. He is prepared to give a great deal of his time and attention to the city's affairs.

C. E. KIMLIN, 219 North Isabel; age 40 years; resided in Glendale 8 years. He is business manager of our most famous institution, the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital, known the country over. He is a man of great popularity because of his great ability and never-failing courtesy. He has had 20 years of active and successful business experience. He has been actively interested in civic betterment and humanitarian movements.

WILLIAM C. MABRY, 115 East Acacia avenue; age 49 years; resided in Glendale approximately 9 years. After his graduation from medical college he served his country in four campaigns: Spanish-American War; Chinese Boxer Expedition; Philippine Insurrection, and the World War. Throughout many years of army service and in civil life he has continuously occupied administrative and executive positions of great responsibility. During his residence in this city he was city health officer of Tropico during three administrations and was, for three or four years, president of the Tropico Chamber of Commerce. He also served as superintendent of the Playgrounds Association and installed the Tropico playgrounds. He has been closely identified with every public improvement, including the paving and lighting of Brand boulevard and the acquisition of the water system. Dr. Mabry is a highly educated man and has had unusual training and experience in the field of sanitation, as this was one of his special duties during the many years he served in the army. His knowledge and experience in the field of sanitation alone will not only protect the health of the City of Glendale in the event of the improvement of our water supply and the installation of a sewage disposal plant, but will save the taxpayers thousands if not hundreds of thousands of dollars. Dr. Mabry is a specialist and is not engaged in general practice. As a physician he thoroughly believes in medical freedom under the law. That is, he believes in the right of any individual to choose any method of healing he may desire. During the last nine months he has been in the service as Acting Assistant Surgeon, U. S. Public Health Service, in care of disabled veterans of the World War. All of the disabled veterans under his charge at Thornycroft warmly commend him.

SPENCER ROBINSON, 1234 East Windsor; age 52 years; resided in Glendale 14 years; real estate business. He is a substantial business man, having considerable property in Glendale, and his course as City Trustee has met with the approval of the City of Glendale. He is in a position to give his time and attention to the city's interests.

We Oppose the Election Of:

DWIGHT W. STEPHENSON for many reasons. For instance, he quietly introduced and, after over 700 citizens had objected, continued to justify a proposed ordinance which would have extended the cemetery up one of our finest residence avenues and immediately across the street from school grounds and private homes, notwithstanding the patent fact that there is ample space for expansion in another direction. He tolerates, if not encourages, nepotism in the public service. Nepotism has a most devitalizing effect upon civic efficiency.

A. H. LAPHAM is an employe of the railroad company, who works in the City of Los Angeles, leaving Glendale early in the morning and returning in the evening. Mr. Lapham lives in the same scetion of the city as does Mr. Davis (who is in business in Glendale and has no entangling alliances).

WE OPPOSE ALL OTHER CANDIDATES because they have avoided any public pronouncement against "blue laws" and Sunday closing. There are some who have declared for submitting the matter to a special election. Such a course is not in the interest of economy and would be wasteful of the city's funds. The issue is now clearly drawn and can be settled by the vote next Tuesday. The members of the BETTER COUNCIL CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE believe in decency, quiet, law and order. We do not believe in the disturbance of Sunday worship. We believe in pursuing the peaceful, cordial attitude heretofore evidenced by one religion toward another in this city. But we also believe in the constitutional right of RELIGIOUS FREEDOM, and the only way in which we can be protected is by eternal vigilance against fanatical and oppressive Sunday legislation. We are confident that this represents the view of the great majority of church members, and we earnestly invite their hearty cooperation.

YESTERDAY, TODAY AND TOMORROW

Just because your luck was "hard" yesterday is no reason for permitting yourself to fear that tomorrow will be unfortunate also.

In the light of today you should plan for tomorrow.

But, to do your best, you must not mourn over yesterday.

Let the mistakes of yesterday enable you to avoid making the same sort of mistakes today and in the future.

Charge them up to your valuable knowledge account—but do not carry them.

Worry over the past has thwarted what might otherwise have been brilliant careers.

Fear of tomorrow has prevented thousands from making a decision which would have benefited them throughout their entire lives.

Today's job is a big one—all that any one person can comfortably fill to completeness.

Part of today's job is forming plans for tomorrow.

Part of yesterday's—to decide on your course for today.

Today may be the great turning point of your life.

Get up in the morning with as much interest in life as if it were surely the high tide which is to bear you to your future highest goal.

But are you prepared to fill that longed-for place—the top?

Modesty is apparently that rare quality which permits a dear creature to reveal everything north and south of the fortieth parallel and then worry because her petticoat shows.

"Jazz dance said to be slowly decaying," says a headline in the Sioux City Journal. The jazz dance was in the last stages of moral decomposition when it was originated.

One sometimes wonders how popular a movie star's biography would be if the readers were assured beforehand that there was nothing salacious in it.

Cables are wonderful things. Without them, Colonel Harvey couldn't keep the state department informed concerning our foreign policy.

It might help some to omit from histories pictures of victorious generals and print pictures of wounded privates instead.

Congress must have indeed welcomed Admiral Sims' speech in London. There is an opportunity for another investigation.

Speaking of protective armoring, daughter didn't wear such thin clothes in the old days when spanking was in vogue.

The time has come when many a promising backyard garden now looks like a weed patch in an African jungle.

The war made the world safe for democracy; normalcy is making it safe for pitching horseshoes.

GRAVE AND GAY

THE TAX ON INCOME

Two sweet young things at the movies last night didn't seem to care for the picture, for they spent the entire time in conversation. One of them was inclined to complain about everything and everybody. The other was one of the "explainers," who can interpret everything. Here's a sample of her marvelous intellect:

"I can't see why we have to pay these extra pennies every time we go to a movie," number one complained.

"Oh, you see, the government is responsible for that," number two explained. "You've heard of the income tax, haven't you?"

Number one admitted that she knew there was such a thing.

"Well, that's it. Every time we come in a picture show we have to pay an income tax."

"I've been reading an article on electricity, William," said his wife as she laid down the technical magazine, "and it appears that before long we shall get pretty near everything we want by just touching a button."

"It will not pay here!" said friend husband. "You will never be able to get anything that way."

"Why not, William?"

"Because nothing would ever make you touch a button. Look at my shirt?"

Flatbush—"Music should make one think."

Bensonhurst—"Well, it does make me think if it happens to be the wedding march."

"You can't always judge persons by their names."

"Indeed?"

"For instance, one would think from the name that a grass widow was green."

"Do you have much trouble when you are saying your lessons in school, Tommy?"

"Yes, sir."

"What seems to trouble you most?"

"The teacher, sir!"

LAYING IT ON

"Many stories are told," said Colonel Elliston P. Masters at a Fort Sheridan tea, "of French hotel extortions. But the worst I have heard was related to me by an army friend.

"He went to a hotel in Paris without making a bargain about rates and dined altogether at restaurants with friends.

"One evening, as he was starting out as usual, the proprietor accosted him in the hall and inquired:

"'I hope you are dining with us tonight, monsieur?'

"'No,' my friend answered, 'I have an engagement.'

"The proprietor with a despairing gesture, exclaimed:

"'It is an insult to the establishment, monsieur, never to dine here.'

"'Not at all,' my friend answered, and thought no more of the matter.

"But when he came to pay his hotel bill, although he had not eaten any meals there, he found this item:

"'Twelve dinners—350 francs.'

"'But I took no dinners here,' the guest protested to the proprietor. 'You remarked about that to me yourself.'

"'I know you didn't,' was the reply. 'Had you taken those dinners the price would only have been 250 francs.'

"And what, in heaven's name, are the extra hundred francs for?"

"For the insult, monsieur, for the insult."

Life ever discloses
Some check to our thanks;
We get thorns with roses
And splinters with planks.

"Curious marriage, wasn't it?"

"How curious?"

"The bride was given away and the girls say the groom threw himself away."

Mrs. Sharpe—"I'm going to give music lessons, William."

Mr. Sharpe—"I think you'll have to. No one will pay for them."

If you accidentally put on a undershirt wrong side out, you must leave it that way or you'll have bad luck.

WOMAN'S COZY CORNER

By JOSEPHINE FRANCE

Of Interest To Musicians

Sinding To Come To America

Christian Sinding, the Norwegian composer, will come to America in place of Sibelius, to join the faculty of the Eastman school at Rochester, N. Y., according to recent announcement.

Mr. Sibelius, who was to head the department of composition, has suffering from a recent severe nervous breakdown, and asked to be released from his agreement to come to Rochester next fall, according to Musical America. Realizing that the voyage and the strain of teaching classes in English might endanger his health further, the directors of the school agreed.

Sinding, who had been seriously considered in earlier deliberations of the directors, was requested to join. Although idolized by his countrymen, and receiving a government annuity for his attainments, the composer was induced to accept the offer, and will arrive in Rochester with his wife next fall in time for the opening of the school.

Born in Norway in 1856, Christian Sinding did the major part of his studying at the Leipzig conservatory under Zwintscher, Reinecke, Schradieck, Roentgen and Jadassohn. While still young he determined to devote himself entirely to composition, and his success has been continuous. He has written various works for orchestra including three symphonies, the last of which was composed during the war. Works for all manner of chamber music combinations and solos are among his output, and he has made many tours in Europe as guest conductor of the leading orchestras, leading his own works.

In Norway he is a popular idol and in 1914 his concerto was chosen to be played at the centennial music festival in Christiania.

Dorothy Canfield on Music

Dorothy Canfield Fisher, in a letter to the Springfield Republican, expresses appreciation of a recent music festival in that city, The closing paragraphs of her letter follows:

"The great choral performances in Springfield are what gave it its special character. The performance of 'The Children's Crusade,' for instance, a tremendously difficult undertaking, which the directors must have known beforehand was a little beyond their resources, musically, is a thousand times more worth while than the smooth and perfect performance of hackneyed choral, threadbare with repetition, and so easy as to be entirely within the capacity of any mediocre leader and chorus, I enjoyed that performance more than any one of the concerts, although they were all excellent, because it seemed to me that it showed a constant reaching up, a constant effort for musical growth, and in itself it was extremely interesting and touching. The performance of the 'Elijah' showed that the leaders of music in Springfield are as well balanced as they are ambitious and energetic, and the finished, smooth perfection of that performance was something long to be remembered.

"May I add that as a good American hopeful that we mean what we say about equality in our country, I took a great deal of satisfaction in the presence of the colored children in the chorus, sitting side by side with their white comrades, and bringing to the common effort the great gifts of their race for music.

STUDIO NEWS AND GOSSIP

MATRIMONIAL MIX-UP MAKES UNIQUE DRAMA

"Partners of Fate" is a story of extraordinary strength, with an extraordinary role; and to this role Louise Lovely measures up fully.

The story, by Stephen Chalmers, concerns four well-intentioned young people who gamble in the game of matrimony and find themselves the winners of uncongenial mates. A ship upon which all are traveling is wrecked, and in the confusion each husband finds himself cast up on a lonely island with the other fellow's wife.

Here's a state of things which brings out the best and the worst qualities of the group—with the survival of the fittest the natural outcome of various perils and temptations, in situations strongly dramatic.

Harry Carey is known as the ace of Western drama. He has a new type of starring vehicle in "The Freeze Out." Throughout the five reels he has an opportunity to demonstrate a mastery of subtle drama and flashing wit.

George Hull wrote the original story and Jack Ford, who has produced many of Carey's successes, directed the production.

Heading the supporting cast is Helen Ferguson, a capable dramatic actress, who recently was seen in "The Mutiny of the Elsinore" and in other feature productions. Carey also is supported by Joe Harris, J. Farrell McDonald, Charles LeMoyne, Lydia Yeamans Titus any many others.

More than 70,000 feet of film were used in making Clara Kimball Young's latest production, "Hush." Harry Garson, producer of all of Miss Young's pictures, is a great stickler for details, and always insists that a scene be perfect before he will approve it. Of the entire footage taken about 5,800 feet were finally used in the finished picture.

One of the features of "Hush" is its photography. Arthur Edeson, who is responsible for this, spent eight years as a portrait photographer in one of the leading New York portrait studios before he took up work in motion picture photography. Mr. Edeson photographed "Cheating Cheaters' and "The Eyes of Youth" two recent pictures in which Miss Young scored big successes.

There is great rejoicing in Smith Center, Kansas, because that bustling community has been officially recognized as existing in these United States by the new edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica. Smith Center gets nearly a whole line in this record of knowledge and achievement as the birthplace of Roscoe "Fatty" Arbuckle, screen star extraordinary, who is shortly to be presented in his first Paramount Arbuckle comedy 2-reeler "The Butcher Boy." Since this unexpected recognition of its greatness, Smith Center has been debating the question of equiping Constable Eph Williams with a uniform and helmet, certain of its citizens maintaining that the town's recently acquiring dignity demands its police force to be metropolitan in all respects.

POPULAR SCIENCE

In an attempt to show the possible effect on living animals of bombardment by hailstones, Paul Martin, a French investigator, has found that the sizes of the stones range from that of a pepper-seed to that of a baseball. From a grain or two, the weight rises to seven ounces or more in the largest reported specimens. Partly from observation and partly from calculation, the conclusion has been reached that hailstones of eight grains or more, falling from the heights at which they are formed, may kill small birds and that stones of a pennyweight or 24 gains may destroy quail. Animals the size of a rabbit may be brought down by an iceshot weighing 40 grains, while humans may be fatally injured by stones weighing two ounces, much smaller than the largest.

The electrically charged curtain of water of a county game warden in Washington state is claimed to have proven effective in preventing fish from entering irrigation canals. A double row of steel piles in a frame is placed in the intake of the canal. The piles being suitably wired, the passage of an electric current charges a section of water 12 feet through across the canal, and it is found that no fish will enter the electrified water. It is believed that the destruction in irrigation ditches of vast numbers of fish can be prevented by enough fish stops of this kind.

The perfection of a simple new machine for separating fiber from wild pineapple leaves, is reported by Vice-Consul E. B. Montgomery to have opened up a mine of wealth in Colombias vast stretches of land hitherto of little value. This land is covered with such fiber plants as Bronelia, Sylvestris and Bromelia Pinuela. The fiber of the former can be divided into filaments as fine as a ten-thousandths of an inch, and has the tensible strength of flax, resisting as well the action of water, and takes dye perfectly and with a good gloss. The fiber of Bromelia Pinuela, the extraction of which has been sought at a cost of thousands of dollars, will be the first to be produced commercially on account of the greater abundance and accessibility. The separating machine, costing about $500, can produce about 250 pounds of fiber a day. Some of the fiber has a length of 18 to 24 inches, selling in New York before the recent drop for $1 a pound, and a shorter length of five inches, separated automatically from the longer, is in demand at 10 cents a pound, for making linen paper. Each ton of leaves, costing about $10 to collect, yields 500 pounds of fiber; and the supply of raw material can meet a demand of 100,000 tons of fiber a year.

THE FAMOUS

Zoellner String Quartette

Here Friday Evening, June 24

Crowds were turned away from the great Carnegie Hall in New York city recently when the Zoellner Quartet gave a concert there.

People gladly paid $5 for seats, many of those who were turned away would gladly have paid a greater sum than that to get in. Glendale residents have a chance to hear this great quartet at the Christian Endeavor auditorium for a very nominal admission price. Every seat in the house should be taken Friday evening.

Conservative critics employed by the standard musical journals rhapsodize in glowing words on the "unparalleled ensemble, exquisite perfection of tone shading and marvelous unity of this quartet."

The preparation of the Zoellners for their particular line of musical art is without precedent, probably, in the annals of chamber music organization. Their paths up Parnassus was strewn with the sharp briars of disappointment and privation. Animated by the same unchanging purpose, inspired by the same ideals of their art, sharing the same joys and the same sorrows, walking hand in hand along the hard upward road that leads to the heights of success, their art has, in the crucible of the years, become fused into a perfect harmony whose beauty is as inspiring as it is unique.

The Zoellners have played in all the great European centers of art. They appeared many times at the royal residence in Brussels and were decorated by the mother of King Albert of Belgium, the Countess of Flanders.

FRIENDS OF MRS. RALPH MEEKER ARE MISLED BY FALSE RUMOR

The death of Mrs. T. L. Meagher on Monday was the cause of a rumor which spread through the city and was passed from mouth to mouth that Mrs. Ralph Meeker on Colorado street had suddenly passed away, the similarity of the two names leading to a confusion of identity. By late afternoon friends of Mrs. Meeker began arrjving to learn the particulars and offer condolences and many of them received quite a shock, but an agreeable one when they found the subject of their inquiries receiving her guests as well and cheerful as ever.

STRONG BOOSTERS FOR GLENDALE

When J. H. Garnsey and wife who came to California a little over a year ago, who had been in the insurance business in Kansas City, Mo. for 30 years, "writing every kind of insurance known except life" as he puts it, resolved to take life easy. After looking around the Southland pretty thoroughly he finally bought two residence properties on Vine street Glendale, Nos. 438 and 442, the first for himself and wife and the other for his son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Waterman. He tried the idle life for a few months but could not stand it, so buying a lot at the southwest corner of Columbus and Vine, he started two 5-room houses facing on Columbus. The first one was completed about two weeks ago and was bought by Miss Jean Barlow, now occupying it. The other will be completed this week and will be held for Mr. and Mrs. Garnsey's other daughter, her husband and two babies, who will arrive some time this summer, then the family will be united and all close neighbors. Mr. and Mrs. J. Ralph Sears are now on a big ranch near Colfax, but expect to sell it and them come south at once to occupy the Glendale home awaiting them. Mr. Sears is an electrician and mechanical engineer of high attainments.

Few new citizens of our commonwealth have shown greater confidence in the future of their chosen residence city than has Mr. Garnsey.

TELEGRAPH BRIEFS

BOSTON, Mass., June 21.—Considerable mystery surrounds the finding of the decapitated body of Miss Selina de Long, former Chinese missionary on the Boston and Albany railroad tracks near the Cottage Farm bridge today. An investigation revealed that Miss de Long disappeared from the home of friends in Brookline after it was thought she had retired.

DUBLIN, June 21.—The village of Knockerokhery, in county Roscommon was nearly wiped out by incendiaries early today. Only three out of 50 houses are left standing. Armed, masked men invaded the village at 1 o'clock this morning and routed families from their beds. Then the torch was applied. The residents were not given time to dress.

LONDON, June 21.—Italy has decided to adhere to the Anglo-French note to Greece suggesting allied mediation for peace between Greece and Turkey, according to a dispatch from Rome today quoting an official statemment issued by the Italian government.

BELFAST, June 21.—Heavy reinforcements of troops and police are arriving here to guard King George and Queen Mary during the ceremonies attending the state opening of the Northern Ireland (Ulster) parliament tomorrow. The Irish guards, brought especially from Aldershot, will lead the royal procession through the streets of this city.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 21.—Accompanied by her mother and Miss Margaret Dowd of the New York Women's Swimming association, Miss Ethelda Bliebtey, greatest woman swimmer in the world, arrived here today on the steamer Ventura from Honolulu, completing what has practically been a world tour. From here she will go to Capitola-by-the-Sea, where she will compete next Sunday in the A. A. U. senior national mile championship.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Congress will probably take the British Premier Lloyd George at his word and provide Great Britain with an opportunity to discuss with American statesmen any proposal for limitation of armaments, Representativve Kelley, Republican of Michigan, chairman of the house conferees on the navy appropriation bill, indicated today.

NEW YORK, June 21.—Washington D. Vanderlip, head of the American syndicate which has secured commercial concessions in Russia will begin a national "campaign of education about Russia" when he arrives in this country tomorrow on board the liner Olympic. Announcement to this effect was contained in a wireless dispatch received by the International News Service from the promoter today.

LONDON, June 21.—Rioting broke out in the mine strike at Chesterfield today. One thousand strikers clashed with the police. Several were wounded.

WASHINGTON, June 21. — The naval seaplane N. C.-7, one of the planes that was to have participated in the bombing demonstration off the Virginia Capes today, caught fire and was destroyed near Newport News this morning, according to a long distance telephone call received at the navy department at 10 o'clock. The pilot and observer escaped uninjured, although the plane was consumed, according to information received here.

DUBLIN, June 21.—The Earl of Bandon, 71, was kidnaped today by Sinn Feiners. The aged earl was seized when the republicans set fire to Castle Bernard. The castle was destroyed.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—There is every suspicion that the American schooner Carroll A. Deering met with foul play before she dashed herself to pieces on Diamond Shoals, on the North Carolina coast, said a statement issued by the state department today. The department's announcement only served to deepen the mystery which surrounds the Deering's case and that of three other American vessels which have disappeared from the face of the sea during the last few months.

BROKEN HILLS, Nev., June 21.—Lorraine Ross, 17-year-old daughter of Ed Ross, proprietor of the Broken Hills hotel, was burned to death in a fire which destroyed the hotel. Ross was severely burned in an effort to rescue his daughter.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Two more vessels were added to the list of those which have so mysteriously and uncannily disappeared off the mid-Atlantic coast in recent months, leaving little or no trace of their fate. The latest mysteries concern the British tramp steamer Albyan and the Russian bark Yuto. They were last hear from in November and, strangely enough, they were in the approximate vicinity where the American steamer Hewitt disappeared.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—The Greek government has promised the American legation at Athens that hereafter men picked up for evasion of military service will be given a chance to prove their nationality before being impressed into the service, according to official advices reaching Washington today.

Playing cards unexpectedly or under unusual conditions foretells a pleasant and profitable discovery.

FOUND LARGE SUM IN MEXICAN CAVE

(By International News Service)

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., June 21—Adam Fisher, of this city, has just returned to the United States from a successful ten-year search for hidden wealth in the heart of Mexico. Fisher claims to have located a much sought after cave, where he says $73,000,000 worth of gold and silver bullion and Spanish octagonal dollars have been concealed since the early part of the nineteenth century. He is awaiting a concession from the Mexican government in order to bring out the huge treasure he claims to have located.

Fisher asserts as his belief that bandits captured the treasure trove while it was being moved to a place of safety by agents of the old Spanish government to protect it from revolutionists who were then making war upon the government. The bandits were then slain by the revolutionists, Fisher contends.

Fisher discovered the cache of gold, he says, through a friend who was at one time captured by the bandits and who learned of the location of the treasure. Fisher has been roaming the mountain fastnesses of Mexico for ten years in search of the treasure cave.

PARIS HATS ADORNED WITH STEWED PRUNES

(By International News Service)

LONDON, June 21—Rare and refreshing fruits, real and artificial transparent and opaque, are the latest fancy in women's hat decoration.

Fruiterers, horticulturists, market gardeners, street-barrow men, however would fail to recognize the strange growths which are now flaunting on their heads here.

Paris is said to be the home of these unknown fruits. We have passed the stage of red currants and carrots. The designer is filling the shop windows with fruits that have never been known except in fairyland and in the transformation of the Christmas pantomime.

A woman passing along Bond street was seen to be wearing a red hat decorated with a hybrid cluster of stewed prunes and pomegranates. Another hat was trimmed with small red cocoanuts.

In the fashionable hat designers' salons there are new creations in glass and celluloid fruit resembling crystal preserves.

GIRLS SHOULD NOT FEAR MARRIAGE

(By International News Service)

LONDON, June 21.—The remarkable slump in marriages in Great Britain during the last year, coupled with the publication here of sensational divorce figures from the United States, has caused serious discussions as to the reasons for the so-called failure of the modern marriage.

Miss Sybil Thorndike—who is, without exception, the most versatile actress on the British stage today—will have none of it.

She admits that modern conditions make contemplatiion of marriage a problem, but she comes to the front with a truly remarkable defense of that well-known institution which, we are told by some, is becoming a miserable failure.

"Unless she is very much in love, the modern girl is inclined to be afraid of marriage," Miss Thorndike declares.

"Yet marriage, at its best, is the most happy, exciting and delightful relationship possible in this world. Even if there is not violent love on both sides marriage can still be a very good thing.

"In the finest type of marriage you get a comradeship which is impossible in any other relationship.

"Daily habits, the little discussions and fusses about children, and also the living together, produce a comradeship which you cannot get in any other way.

"There must be freedom in marriage, and in the post-war marriage there is a freedom that husbands and wives never had before and which is all to the good.

"A married woman knows what is comely and decent; but, without ever going beyond the limits of comeliness and decency, she can, if she has married a pal, enjoy a freedom unknown to her grandmother.

"The woman who remains unmarried misses the great experience of motherhood.

"If the modern girl marries a pal I don't think she ought to feel scared. A marriage between equals is one of the most wonderful things in life."

Miss Thorndike is Mrs. Lewis Casson, the mother of several handsome children. Her husband is always in the cast of a play in which she appears. At present he is both actor and manager of the productions in which Miss Thorndike is starred.

FACED WITH SIX MURDER CHARGES WOMAN IS CALM

Alleged Bluebeardess Accused of Bringing About Deaths of Four Husbands, Her Little Daughter and Her Brother-in-Law—To Be Tried in Idaho Court

(By International News Service)

TWIN FALLS, Idaho, June 21:—What manner of woman is the alleged Bluebeardess, Mrs. Lyda Eva Southard, accused of having caused the death of four husbands, a brother-in-law and her baby?

Does her appearance bear out the childhood pictures which caused shivers to run down our backs when we read of the doings of the wicked Bluebeard of yore?

First of all, and as a matter of course, the alleged Mrs. Bluebeard has no beard. Neither does she bear out in any shape or manner the pictures that a description of her alleged crimes would develop in our imaginations.

Instead of these pictures, the one presented by Mrs. Southard is a slender, colorless little woman, well under five feet two inches tall, with gray eyes that look one full in the face when she speaks. Mrs. Southard is petite, dainty, with hands that a lady of quality might envy for their shapely slenderness, and with a smile that grows in friendliness and warmth as she talks—she is about the last person one would select as a possible wholesale murderess.

An unusually small woman, Mrs. Southard's is a singularly piquant face, with retrousse nose, mobile lips and the guileless eyes of a child. Attractively arranged masses of hair are drawn down to conceal a forehead which bulges obviously.

Mrs. Southard is peculiarly emotionless. Mrs. V. H. Ormsby, who as matron was her constant companion for two weeks on the long trip here from Honolulu, where she was arrested, declares that not once during that period did she display emotion. She has registered sadness and gladness in but two topics since her arrival.

Baby Evokes Tenderness

It was when she spoke of little Lorraine Marie, her baby by her first husband, R. C. Dooley, a Missourian, that Mrs. Southard manifested her first real emotion. Her lips trembled, and traces of burning tears welled up in her eyes as she repeated the baby's name a time or two. The temporary wavering, however, immediately gave place to the calm which has marked her attitude and behavior since her arrest weeks ago.

It was during the discussion of her present husband, Paul Vincent Southard, a U. S. Navy petty officer, who is en route from Honolulu here to be with her during her trouble, that Mrs. Southard displayed gladness. She told how she had met Southard in San Pedro where she was visiting, and where he was stationed with the navy. She also told how a two months' courtship was followed by their marriage and their later sailing for Honolulu where Southard was assigned to duty.

Husband Remains Loyal

"I met him in San Pedro; I was lonesome, and he was too, and we just took to each other from the start," was the account Mrs. Southard gave of her meeting with her present husband, who is standing by her loyally in the present trouble and who is enroute here now to be with her during her trial in the north.

Southard, who is two years younger than his wife, has a splendid record of nine years' service in the navy. He served overseas during the war and is due for promotion next spring, according to his wife.

"The only fear that we had," says the enigmatical little wife who has baffled police and doctors, "was that they might separate us, somehow, Since we have found out that that cannot be done legally we are not worrying."

A plain, narrow, gold wedding ring —not one of the new-fangled kind— was turned round and round on the slender hand as its wearer confessed to that single fear.

Brother-in-Law Dies

Following are Mrs. Southards alleged victims:

Robert C. Dooley, of Keytesville, Mo., her first husband, whom she married, in 1912, as Lyda Trueblood, and who died in Twin Falls October 1, 1915.

Edward Dooley, brother of the first husband, who died in August, 1915, in Twin Falls.

William G. McHaffie, the second husband, a restaurant man of Twin Falls, whom she married in June, 1917, and who died in Hardin, Mont., October 22, 1918.

Harlan C. Lewis, of Billings, Mont., the third husband, whom she married in Denver in 1919, and who died July 6, 1919.

Edward Meyer, fourth husband, a Twin Falls rancher, whom she married secretly August 10, 1920, and who died September 7, 1920.

An infant daughter born to herself and Dooley, which died shortly after the father's death.

PLAN THREE-MONTH TRIP TO EAST

J. S. Gibbs, who has been finishing a residence for himself at 630 East Chestnut and working in the intervals for J. E. Peters, the contractor, will be joined here this week by his wife and daughter Susie, who have been living on their ranch near Lancaster, which has recently been leased for a term of years. On next Tuesday, the three expect to start on a three months' visit to relativevs in Dallas, Texas, and in the old Georgia home. On their return they expect to again locate in Glendale and rumor hath it that the daughter, who is a widow with a liittle boy will become the bride of fine Christian young gentleman. She is now a trusted employe of the Southern California Edison Co., but has been given an indefinite leave of absence, with the promise of employment, if she again desires it at any place the company has a station.

"STAGE DOOR" AT WHITE HOUSE

(By International News Service)

WASHINGTON, June 21.—The White House—theater of the national drama—has its "stage door."

On a side street, back from shaded Pennsylvania avenue and within easy access from the state, war and navy building, is the White House "stage door." Through this door enter most of the principals in the national drama.

The "stage door" of the White House is really the entrance to the executive offices. Those who are familiar with White House business methods generally use the "stage door" entrance, and it is only the uninitiated and the very formal who seek the president at the front entrances of the White House.

The "stage door" is guarded. Officers Dalrymple and Kelley, who are just as keen-eyed as any guardian of Broadway's stage entrances, cast their eyes over all who enter and are the first official greeters when the "players" enter.

President Harding does most of his work at the executive offices. Here he receives a majority of his visitors and here the cabinet meets to discuss the national "repertoire."

During the Wilson administration the "stage door" was closely guarded, but now it is wide open and all may enter who will, but lest they trespass too far without the proper passports there are Kelly and Dalrymple and a final barrier, "Pat" McKenna, who knows who is who in the cast of the White House play.

Entrance at the "stage door" saves cabinet members and other conferees with the President, from the stare of the ever present tourist clique at the main White House entrances. Slipping down the side street they may enter the White House almost unobserved, except by those who are in the know. If tourists ever learn about the stage door entrance to the White House the worn sports before the big gates on Pennsylvania avenue are going to get a rest.

It is a safe bet in Washington to follow the newspapermen and the camera men if you want to see the big folks and the big fireworks. They know. That is why the camera battery is always lined up ready for action at the "stage door," and that is why the White House Correspondents' association has established its headquarters just within the stage door in the bailiwick of Dalrymple and Kelly.

There are more secret entrances to the White House than the "stage door" which are sometimes used, but then they are "tricks of the trade" and perhaps they had best remain secret.

THEATERS

Palace Grand

"Partners of Fate," the William Fox production in which Louise Lovely is seen today at the Palace Grand theater, is said to combine with unusual effect all the factors considered essential to unqualified success—a strong and strikingly original story and a beautiful star whose place in popular favor has been long established, impressive scenic effects which include shipwreck and tropical island life, and expert direction.

An added attraction is "The Butcher Boy," featuring "Fatty" Arbuckle, who has long since abandoned his first name, Roscoe, with which his parents endowed him. Fatty Arbuckle has capitalized his huge size so successfully that he stands today acknowledged to be "worth his weight in laughs" and is admittedly the "fat" comedian of the screen. The secret of Arbuckle's great popularity is the fact that he makes his audiences laugh at him as well as with him, never fearing to be made the victim of a joke himself, instead of insisting upon always being the one who plays the tricks upon others.

Glendale Theatre

The program at the Glendale theater this evening is a Boy Scout benefit.

There is a laugh for every dramatic punch in Harry Carey's most recent screen success, "The Freeze Out," which is the feature picture on this complete special program.

Then, besides the Pathe Review and a Rolin comedy, "Save Your Money," there is another great attraction. It is the first episode of the greatest serial ever made, "The Diamond Queen," and beautiful Eileen Sedgwick, the star, will be present at both shows with her entire company, including the director, Edwin Kull, a citizen of Glendale.

This serial will be shown on Tuesdays only. It consists of 18 two-reel parts. Miss Sedgwick will speak to the audience at both shows this evening.

All the Boy Scouts have tickets to sell. They may also be had at the box office and Spohr's drug store.

PICNIC OF COLORADO SCHOOL CHILDREN AT LA RAMADA

Children who attend the Colorado street school are fortunate in the fact that they have a very sympathetic Parent-Teacher association to consider their welfare and pleasures, and room mothers who have all the characteristics of motherhood in their relations to pupils.

Monday, children in the fourth grade had a gorgeous time at a picnic staged at La Ramada. The picnic part, which meant pie and cake and lemonade galore, came at noon and after that, there were games and contests arranged by Mrs. Perry, the room mother. This program included the "Crossing the Brook" game, peanut race, three-legged race, wheelbarrow race, walnut race, potato race, sack race and somersaults, with prizes in the form of toys and credits distributed so generously that each child had a toy to carry home. The majority of fourth grade children were there and a goodly number of mothers, the group including Mmes. Arnold, Kilgowan, Steelman, Cash and Perry. The picnickers returned early in the afternoon.

HOT WEATHER CAUSE OF CONSIDERABLE ACTIVITY FOR POOL HERE

Believing that opposition to voting bonds in Glendale for the construction of a swimming pool is due to the fact that it is not generally known that the the city is required to pay a sum of $5000 to secure the West Glendale park site the special committee, appointed at the mass meeting held last Friday to consider a revival of the swimming pool campaign, is planning to issue a circular report for general distribution, which will show the actual expenditures required to construct such a pool.

According to members of this committee opposition to voting swimming pool bonds have centered on the belief that Glendale would be required to assume too heavy an indebtedness. It is a campaign to clear up this misunderstanding that the swimming pool committee proposes to wage during the present week.

The present canvass taking the form of pledge cards which citizens are asked to sign as indicative of their willingness to support the swimming pool project is meeting with much success, according to L. T. Rowley, a member of the special committee, who this morning announced that at least one section of the city showed a 100 per cent record of signed pledge cards.

GUEST OF SISTER

Mrs. William Weger of 610 East Orange Grove entertained at luncheon yesterday, in honor of her brother, Perry Weatherson, who has recently come from Wichita, Kan., to make his home here. The guest list included Mrs. A. Weger of 332 Ethel street, her father, Mr. Charnley, Miss Grace McComb and Mr. Weatherson.

THE SATURDAY NIGHT DANCE

The roundhouse orchestra put on a dance Saturday night. The music was rather tame as a whole but went wild at times and could be heard halfway across the hall. Shorty Thorson called a square dance and his rasping voice broke two lamp chimneys and a window during the encore. Slim Batterson waltzed with Kit Bradley and, as Kit is almost as broad as she is long, Slim had to sand the rails on the curves and he looked like a desperate man endeavoring to carry a mattress from a burning building. The Toad Mountain Express, four hours late, arrived at 2 a. m., and the crew laid over to help wind up the dance.

The band, recently organized, had its first shot at the public Wednesday night and the result was rather discouraging. Gene Holden and bride returned from their wedding trip in the afternoon and that evening the band went up to serenade, gathering under the trees in the front yard. Either Gene has a mighty poor ear for music or the boys got away from practice too early, for the groom mistook it for a charivari party and fired several shots into the bunch.

Busses Supplant Railroads
(By International News Service)

ALBANY, Ga., June 21—As a result of curtailed train service on main line and suspended service of branch lines in Southwest Georgia, autobus and motor-truck lines are fast supplanting railroad service. Bus line operators state there are more than fifty successful lines in operation in Georgia.

DELEGATE RETURNS FROM PRESBYTERY ASSEMBLY

J. A. Newton, who went east as the delegate of the Glendale Presbyterian church to the General Presbytery at Wenona Lake, Ind., and who afterwards made a business tour of middle western cities, returned to Glendale last night. His itinerary included Fort Wayne, Detroit, Buffalo, and a side trip to Niagara Falls, where tremendous amounts of electrical power are developed; came back to Cleveland and to the Onio factories of the washing machines and vacuum cleaners he handles, and visited other electrical appliance people. He spent several days in Chicago and on his way west stopped in Iowa to visit relatives. He found the tour an illuminating experience in many ways. Business conditions, he says, were rather discouraging, but was told the worst is past and that they are looking much better now than a few months ago. He was made to realize that we in Southern California have not had any hard times in comparison with the east.

Lady—"You say your father was injured in an explosion? How did it happen?"
Child—"Well, mother says it was too much yeast but father says it was too little sugar."

"Gladys celebrated her birthday last week," announced Alice.
"Did she take the day off?' inquired Virginia.
"The day? She took about two years off!"

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Kelty of 456 Ivy street and their daughter, Mrs. Baxter, have gone to Catalina to spend a week or ten days.

ENTERTAINED BY DOUG. FAIRBANKS

Secretary Rhoades of the chamber of commerce, Mrs. Rhoades, C. C. Cooper, president of the chamber, and Mrs. Cooper and Miss Cooper, Mrs. Edwin Dodds and Mrs. Lilian Noyes Brown, were guests of Douglas Fairbanks, Saturday afternoon, at the Fairbanks studio, where a dramatized version of Alexander Dumas' famous novel, "The Three Musketeers" is being filmed, and in which Douglas has a leading part.

INDIA WANTS UNITED STATES INVESTORS

(By International News Service)

BOSTON, June 21—India is anxious for closer trade relations with this country, according to Dr. A. L. Nair, one of Bombay's wealthiest business men, who visited this city.

"There is a market for 315,000,000 people waiting for development by the American business man," declared Dr. Nair. "India is passing through a stage of industrial revolution. Many factories are being started and American experts are being engaged.

"America has a great surplus of capital to invest and if the American capitalists invest in joint stock companies composed of Indians and Americans in India there is great possibility of closer trade relations and mutual gain."

Indicative of the support being given to the Citizens' Building company is the receipt of a check by J. A. Rhoades, secretary of the chamber of commerce, from Or. Henry R. Harrower for the sum of $500 in payment for 10 shares of stock. According to representatives of the Citizens' Building company the finances of the enterprise are progressing satisfactorily.

J. A. NEWTON HOME FROM MIDDLE WESTERN TRIP

Found Business Conditions Discouraging But Looking Up—Glad to Be Back

The Presbyterian denomination grew more last year and raised more money than any year in its history.

This is the report brought home from the meeting of the Presbyterian General Assembly by J. A. Newton of this city who was one of the 900 commissioners at this annual legislative body of the denomination. It met for ten days at Winona Lake, Ind.

Although official figures have not yet been sent out, reports from 8000 of the 9700 churches in the denomination show that last year there were added on confession of faith about 124,000 new members of Presbyterian churches. Death and other causes reduced the net gain to 77,000. This is double the net gain of the year previous.

Gifts to local expenses and to benevolences in the denomination increased $21,000,000 in two years, practically doubling the amount of money passing through the hands of treasurers of the church.

This result has been brought about, according to church officers, by more intensive work on the part of local congregations and on the part of individuals. This growth has been coincident with the operation of the New Era Movement, a joint effort to intensify the work of all churches. The development of the evangelistic spirit has also had much to do with the result. This plan makes use of neighboring pastors to work in nearby fields.

Plans were adopted at this meeting for a thorough study of all the work of the church with a committee instructed to continue investigations looking to a report next year at Des Moines, Iowa, which may reorganize all the 14 boards and agencies of the church along lines alleged to be more in keeping with efficiency and the present needs of the church.

Another committee was instructed to continue negotiations with other churches looking to organic union of all evangelical denominations. An overture furthering this was defeated this year, it being alleged the effort looked to mere federation. Another effort at union rather than federation was made in overtures to the Southern Presbyterian church.

Requests from a number of presbyteries that the general assembly be reduced in size and that it meet only every two years were not looked upon with favor.

The national service commission, called into being during the war, which has since been aiding wounded and sick soldiers was discharged, and its work absorbed by two other agencies of the denomination.

The moderator, elected to hold office for one year, was Dr. H. C. Swearingen, pastor of the House of Hope church, St. Paul, Minn. The stated clerk, elected for five years to have charge of the office of general assembly with headquarters at Philadelphia was Rev. L. S. Mudge, D. D. Dr. Mudge is pastor at Harrisburg, Pa., and follows in office Dr. William Henry Roberts, who was standing clerk for nearly 40 years, preceding his death a year ago.

William Jennings Bryan was one of the well known laymen at the assembly. He addressed an audience of nearly 4000 in the new tabernacle at Winona Lake on Sunday night during the session, speaking on the need of teaching the Bible in higher educational institutions.

LEAVE FOR AN EASTERN TRIP

Major and Mrs. R. E. MacLaren, 224 East Chestnut street, left this morning on an eastern trip, with Chicago as their objective point.

The MacLerens will spend a few days in Salt Lake City, and will go on from there via Denver. Major MacLaren will return to Glendale after a few days' visit in Chicago, but Mrs. MacLaren will remain for a month's visit with relatives and friends.

COMPLETE DISCLAIMER

June 20, 1921.

Rev. W. E. Edmonds, Glendale, Calif.:

My dear Brother Edmonds—I was mighty pleased to see in the papers Friday a complete disclaimer of the interest of the Ministerial association in Sunday legislation, and presume, of course, that this means that neither the association nor any of its members have in the past made any effort to plan for Sunday legislation here in Glendale.

I must say that the impression that I have had for a number of weeks has been that not merely were a number of the ministers active, but that you and Mr. Cole were unusually active, but I am glad to have been disabused of this by your frank and unqualified statement.

I am sorrry, however, that the lie has had to have been passed. In your letter in the Press the other day and in your letter to the members of your congregation in which you urged them particularly to vote for certain individuals, the question of "lying" has come up quite frankly, and since I have had some things to say in regard to Sunday legislation and the attitude that I presumed that you and your associates held, I feel that perhaps I may have been considered as one of the guilty parties that has been addicted to misstatement, and, therefore, before making my apology in the paper for assuming that you really did the things that I attributed to you, I would like to have several points cleared up.

I have been told that the day after the Pomona campaign closed and it was thought that the forces of the churches there had secured the passage of an ordinance prohibiting the theaters opening on Sunday, I was given to understand that you and some others had a meeting in Mr. Ingledue's office at which plans were discussed for the consummation of a similar accomplishment here in Glendale. Perhaps I was mistaken, but the word came to me very definitely; and I naturally presumed from my knowledgs of your personal interest in this matter and from what I know about the activity of the Presbyterian church and especially the Rev. Anthony Bowlby that you would very probably be interested in just such an action, so I took it for granted that that statement was correct. Evidently it was not.

Again I was informed that at a meeting of the Federated Brotherhoods in the First Methodist church you were credited with the statement, "We have tested our wings and we can fly," and further with making remarks in regard to the opportunity at the next councilmanic election of securing representation for the churches in the persons of individuals who would be willing to close the theaters on Sunday by ordinance.

Again I read in a Glendale paper a statement to the effect that your church, or one of the organizations of it, passed a resolution of compliment to the Presbyterian church in Pomona for the splendid victory which they had made possible along these lines there. I judged from this news that your opinion of the accomplishment in Pomona indicated a desire for similar Sunday ordinances here in Glendale.

At the time of the signing of various petitions for candidates for councilmanic honors, it was common talk that Messrs. Kirk, Yarick and Muhleman were favorable to your attitude and that they would eventually become your candidates. Subsequent events have confirmed this and it is very natural that one should pass judgment upon a fitting together of circumstances so unusual as this. As a matter of fact, Mr. Kirk, himself, has told me of his own attitude in the matter and I cannot believe that he has suddenly acquired a desire to favor Sunday legislation in Glendale without the matter having been given any consideration previously in this conversation with others in the meetings that he attended. So you see, Mr. Edmonds, it is rather difficult for one to disabuse his mind of the fact that there really has been something of this character going on and I am certainly ready to apologize for having come to a conclusion which is not based on facts if indeed it is not.

Another matter which deserves mention. A certain one of the councilmanic candidates had his petition signed by R. W. Ingledue. Very shortly after Mr. Ingledue had signed this paper he called up this candidate asking him his position on the Sunday question and on finding out that he was opposed to it, asked to withdraw his endorsement. Why did Mr. Ingledue give any consideration to this if there was no issue of this kind involved?

The Rev. C. A. Cole, pastor of the Christian church here in Glendale, comes out very frankly emphasizing the necessity for closing the theaters on Sunday, and in his article which you commend in your letter published in the paper some days ago, he intimates that any such action will be perfectly in harmony with the constitution. Why did he give any consideration to closing the theaters on Sunday, and now signs with you the manifesto of the Ministerial association that no such matter has even been given such consideration?

In your own letter in which you use the rather amusing statement, "Blow, brother, Blow," and so on, it really seems as though you were in favor of religious legislation although I may have misread your remarks.

I think I could mention a number of other instances in regard to this matter. It have it an fairly good authority that the matter of Sunday tled, will you not assure me that all of the above are untrue and that there is not now, nor has there ever been any effort to secure representation on the new Glendale city council of members who are favorable to any kind of Sunday legislation.

Cordially yours,
HENRY R. HARROWER.

Thanks Dr. Harrower

Dr. Henry H. Harrower, Chairman Postoffice Committee, Glendale Chamber of Commerce:

Dear Dr. Harrower.—At the regular meeting of the board of directors today noon, the writer made a verbal report of the activities of the postoffice committee, informing the board of the splendid way your committee had handled the matter of circulating petitions and obtained more than 2000 signatures to the petitions for an independent postoffice. It was also reported to the board that the petitions by request of the committee would be taken to Washington by W. E. Evans and presented to Congressman Lineberger personally.

A resolution was unanimously adopted by the board extending to you and your good committee a vote of thanks for the able and effective manner in which you have handled this entire matter, and expressing their confidence that through your ability and untiring efforts Glendale would soon have an independent postoffice. With best wishes.

Sincerely yours,
JAMES M. RHOADES,
Secretary.

MONTGOMERYS BACK FROM CONVENTION AT 'FRISCO

Officials Saw That Visitors Had an Enjoyable Time

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Montgomery of Central avenue returned to Glendale Monday night, after a wonderfully good time in San Francisco. It will be rememberred that they went to attend the exposition and convention of the Shoe Dealers' association. Most of the members were accompanied by their wives, and the officials and program committees saw to it that something for the entertainment of their better halves was doing all the time. Their program of pleasure included a show at the Orpheum, a dinner at the Palace hotel, a trip to Mount Tamalpais and a wonderful luncheon at Tait's on the beach. Mrs. Montgomery was herself a hostess at the Palace hotel one ofternoon to the ladies of the convention whom she entertained with readings, and made such a hit with her guests that they insiisted upon her acting as their representative to give the greetings of the ladies at the big banquet. The toast she gave is to be published in the Boot & Shoe Reporter, the trade organ of the association.

The Montgomerys also met Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Puffer, who were on their way home from an eastern tour, and spent two days with them at the St Francis and in sight-seeing trips, the two couples coming home together.

At the shoe exposition all the latest designs in footwear were exhibited and at the meeting addresses were made by distinguished speakers from all parts of the country. The convention lasted three days but the Montgomerys were away a week.

KNOWS FURNITURE; ALSO GLENDALE

The interest of W. F. Trice in the Page-Trice Furniture company, has just been purchased by his partner, W. C. Page, who will continue the business along the advanced lines demanded by a growing city like Glendale with metropolitan tastes in furniture. The store at 306-308 East Broadway has commended itself to the buying public from the day it was established, and patrons will be glad to know that it will suffer no change in the dissolution of partnership. Our readers are referred to a most interesting advertisement by this establishment in today's issue of the Press.
